Domaine ROLLIN Père & Fils has been located in the heart of the village of Pernand-Vergelesses for 80 years. Each generation has sought to acquire additional plots of vines to enhance and enrich the family's heritage. The head of the business, Rémi ROLLIN, has been assisted by his son Simon and daughter-in-law Caroline, since 2003. Their 14 hectares of vines are located in 4 Côte de Beaune communes: Pernand-Vergelesses, Aloxe-Corton, Chorey-les-Beaune and Savigny-les-Beaune. Domaine ROLLIN produces a range of 14 appellations produced from the Chardonnay and Pinot Noir. Among them, is the Corton Charlemagne Grand Cru, which stands at the top of the appellation's hierarchy.

For the ROLLIN family, it is essential to work as cleanly and naturally as possible, both in the vineyards and in the winery. The domaine has been certified "Terravitis" since 2015.
