Vigneron indépendant

The BERGERON estate has been a family business for 4 generations and is now managed by Jean-François and his brother Pierre BERGERON. The estate is located in the north of the Beaujolais, in the small village of Emeringes, near Juliéas. The vineyard of 39 hectares, which has used sustainable agricultural methods since 2004, is part of the Beaujolais Villages appellations (white, red and rosé), as well as the Chénas, Julienas, Fleurie, Moulin à Vent, Morgon and Saint-Amour appellations.
