Faugères Auprès de ma Vigne

Located in the heart of the Faugérois, halfway between the Mediterranean and Cévennes, in the municipalities of Magalas and Laurens, in the family property of the Lugagne-Deplon family. Soon two centuries that the estate is in the hands of the same passionate family, who was one of the first winemakers in Languedoc to vinify and raise the wine themselves at the estate. Michel Lugagne Delpon and his children, today at the head of this 31-hectares vineyard, are convinced that the plurality of terroirs and grape varieties allows to compose quality wines for the « Gourmet pilgrims of modern times ». This expression refers to the story, because the domain SAINT-MARTIN D'AGEL is on the former place of step on the road to Compostela.
