Languedoc Saint Georges d'Orques Grande
Cuvée

Located in the regional park of Haut-Languedoc, in the heart of the vineyard of Saint-Georges, is located Lise, an endearing and passionate woman and her passionate team. Since more than 20 years, this famous and rare estate is passed from woman to woman for 5 generations. This 50 hectares estate is full of story. Indeed, it's in 1919 that, Jeanne Betrand, just 12 years old, receives in dowry of her father, the Castel of FOURQUES and the vines. It was then, in 1985 that Lise, her granddaughter is her twenties, became the estate's conductor. Finally, it's in 2013, that Jeanne, very motivated, integrated the farm and marks the 5th generation.
