Puligny Montrachet Les Aubues

Jean Baptiste and Benoît BACHELET manage this family-owned estate with great flair. Jean-Claude, their father, gave them a gorgeous 10-hectare vineyard with the finest soils in Saint Aubin, as well as lovely plots of vines in Chassagne-Montrachet and Puligny-Montrachet.

The plots are often small. The richness of terroir allows them to produce a wide range of unique wines, often in small quantities. Over fifteen white wines and five red wines are therefore produced, from the regional appellation to the Grand Cru.
