The Hubert BOUZEREAU-GRUÈRE & Filles estate is a family estate created by two old families of winemakers, Hubert BOUZEREAU originally from Meursault and Marie-France GRUÈRE from Chassagne-Montrachet. Representing the 7th generation of winegrowers in his family, Hubert BOUZEREAU founded his own estate in 1970 with his wife Marie-France. Since 2001, two of their daughters, Marie-Laure and Marie-Anne have joined them to create the Hubert BOUZEREAU-GRUÈRE & Filles estate, which comprises of 10 hectares spread over 6 municipalities of the Côte de Beaune. The production comprises of 3/4 of whites, with an excellent range of Meursault, Puligny-Montrachet and Chassagne-Montrachet wines. Careful work on the soil, strictly controlled yields and the choice of not prolonging maturing, while using new casks produce pure and fresh wines with a beautiful concentration.
