Located at the gates of Montpellier, on a pebbled terrace is the Mas D'ISNARD. Today, Ludovic Rouquairol, a real passionate is at the head of this 40-hectares estate after having inherited the estate transmitted since 7 generations. This breeder winemaker produces mainly red wine, on lands with a sunny climate and specific to the Mediterranean region. The wines of Mas d'Isnard have a generous bunch finely bodied and the vines are cultivated to create wines of great diversity.
