Domaine Bruno Colin produces wines from the most prestigious vineyards of the Côte de Beaune, handed down over the generations. Its wines are an invitation to enjoyment, conviviality, emotion and passion. After completing his technical sales training at the Lycée Viticole in Beaune, Bruno Colin joined his parents and brother at the Michel COLIN-DELEGER family domaine in 1993.

In 2003, by mutual agreement, the family domaine was split into three separate entities: Domaine Michel COLIN-DELEGER, Domaine Philippe COLIN and Domaine Bruno COLIN.

Bruno made his first vintage in 2004, proud and thrilled to be working the family's vines in the most prestigious appellations of the Côte de Beaune. The domaine now covers 9 hectares, spread over the communes of Chassagne-Montrachet, Puligny-Montrachet, Saint-Aubin, Santenay and Dezize-les-Maranges. With over 19 appellations, including 8 white Premiers Crus in the Chassagne-Montrachet commune, Bruno strives to bring out the typical character of each of his terroirs, located so close to one other and yet so very different.
